Omnibus Omnia

Dedication

We, of the Parkersburg Catholic High School graduating class of 1959 wish to dedicate the Yearbook, not to any individual person, but rather to a group of cherished and respected individuals--OUR BELOVED PARENTS.

It is our firm conviction that no one is more worthy of this dedication of the OMNIBUS OMNIA for 1959 than those who have given us life, love, guidance and selfless devotion these many years.

From infants to high school graduates, we have progressed under their constant vigilance and devotion. With joys, with troubles, in smiles and in tears, we have come to them for praise, for comfort and for help.

Those of us who have at times seemed most ungrateful, recognize the wisdom and love in their words of advice and admonition. To them we owe whatever achievement we have gained in the striving for our goal--GRADUATION.

We hope that whatever awaits us in the future, may be that of which they can be justly proud. Most of all may they be assured of our everlasting love and gratitude.

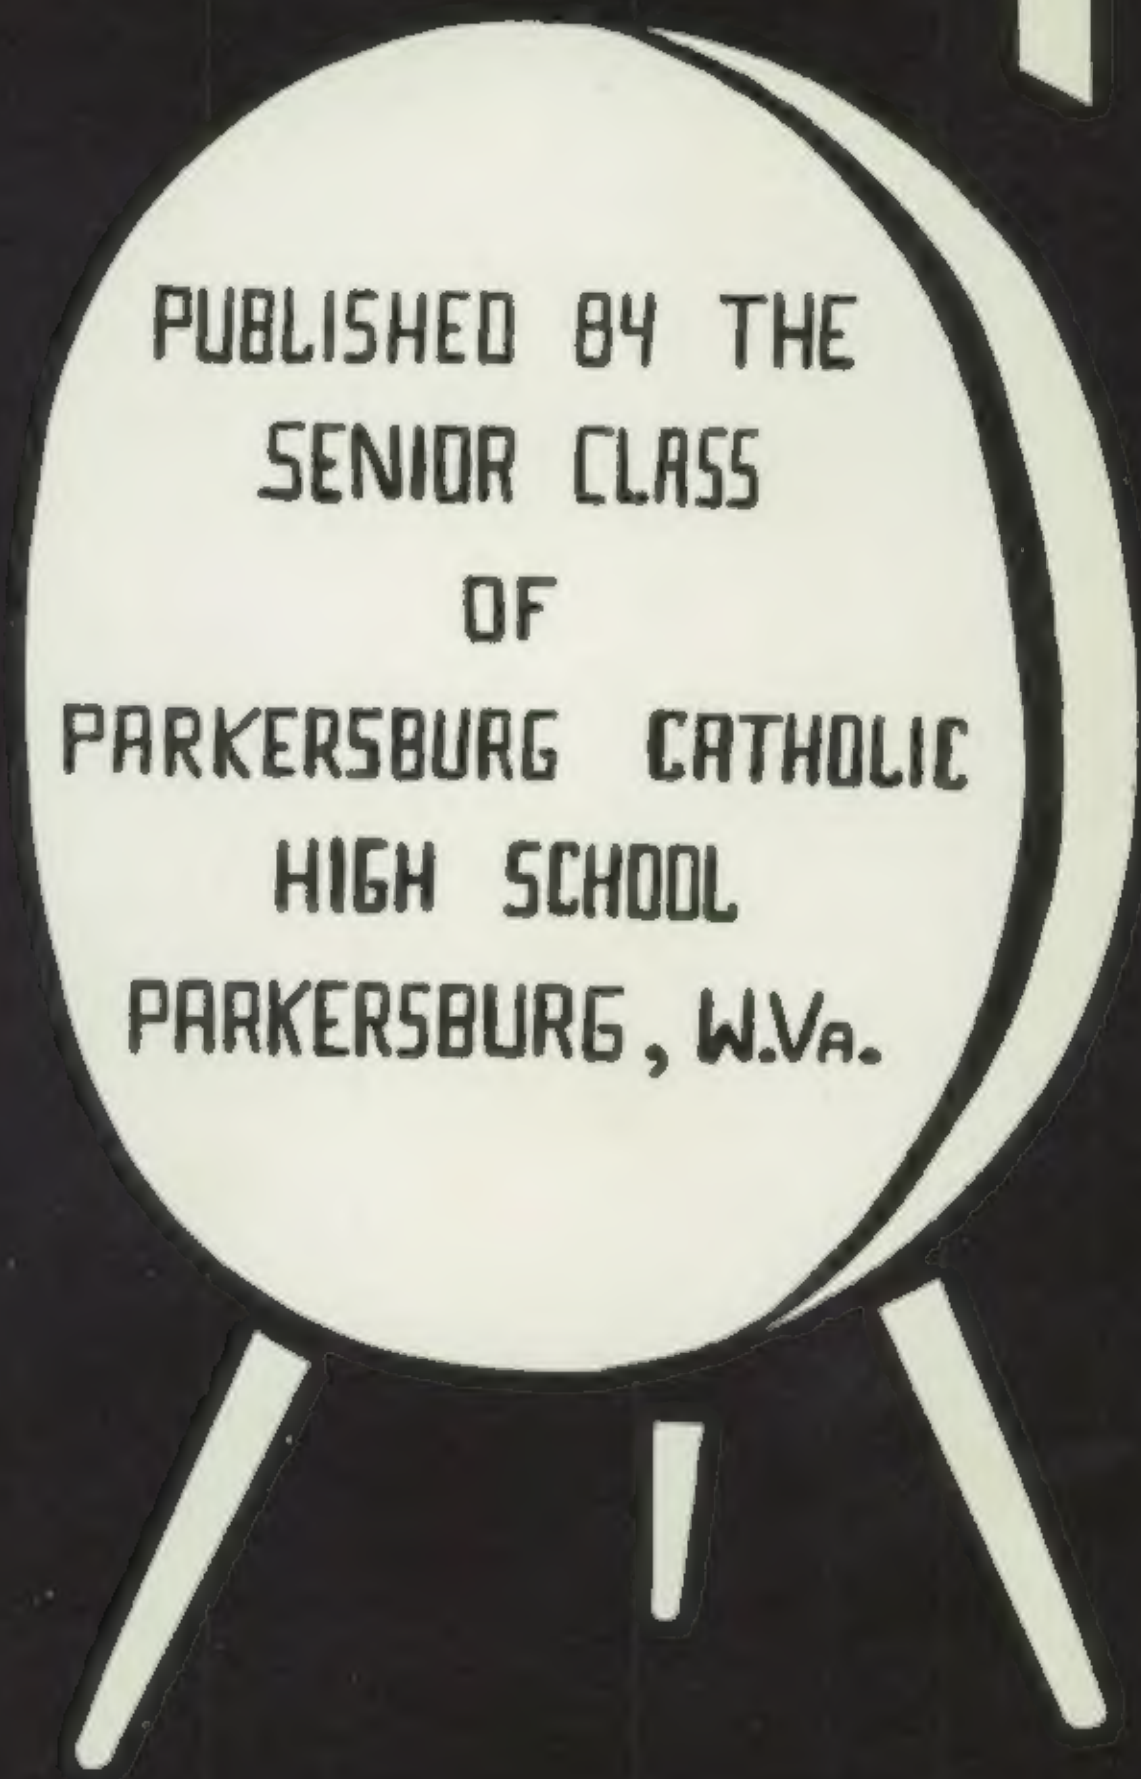

Yes, it is to you, dear parents, that we dedicate this book, these years, our lives.

MRS. A. RUSIGNUOLO

MR. LOUIS MARCHI

GEORGE MICHAEL ABDELLA-----"Happy-go-lucky" and "blaze" describe our "Don Juan". As a Freshman he belonged to the Student Council and his clever antics are displayed through his work as Sports Editor of the Crusader and his dependability as Business Manager of the Yearbook.

LINDA MARIE BARSOTTI-----Always ready and willing to give advice, "Lyn's" personality and character have made her a favorite of all. Her efficiency has helped to make her Secretary of the Senior Class, Crusader reporter and member of the Omnibus Omnia Staff.

MARK MATTHEW BROSSMAN-----Pranks and simple fun constitute Mark's mischievous personality. As a member of the Drama Club, he participated in the '57 Drama Festival and was a member of the National Catholic Theatre Conference in Kansas City.

KATHLEEN DEMPSY BUSBY-----Under her cover of shyness, "Dempsey" is sweet and subtle. She is especially noted for her funny sayings which provide a good laugh for everyone.

KAREN LOUISE CORAM-----Full of dry humor Karen provides an optimistic outlook for all. But all joking aside, she takes her position as Business Manager of the Crusader seriously.

CAROLYN SUE CRAWLEY-----Her peppy personality and winning smile have helped develop her qualities of leadership as Class President for two years and member of the Crusader and Yearbook Staffs. Four years of cheerleading were climaxed by capturing the State Catholic Cheerleading Trophy.

MICHAEL BARRY CROWLEY-----As Vice President in his Junior year and a member of the Yearbook Staff and Art Club, Barry's fresh and new sense of humor has added zest and sparkle to our class.

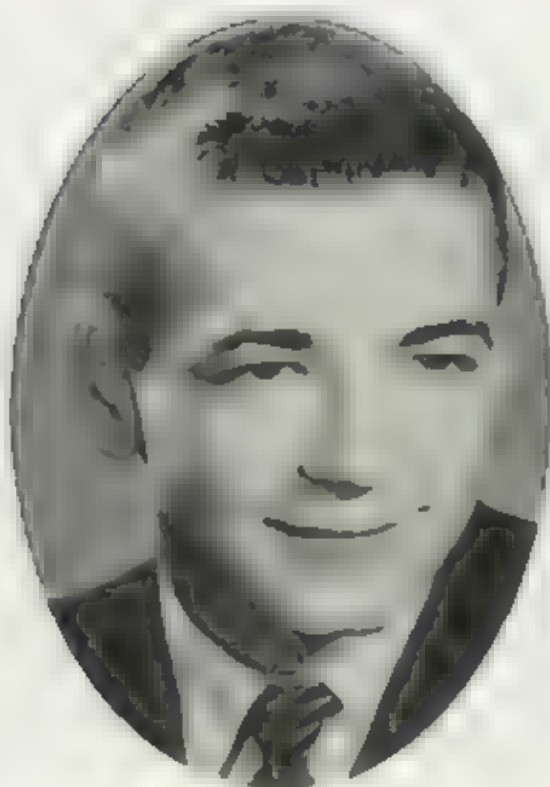

WILLIAM JOSEPH DEEM-----Quiet and dependable describe our Billy, whose artistic ability is plainly shown throughout our Yearbook. Among his good deeds, we find him acting as chauffeur to the Seniors.

VINCENT LYNN DOYLE-----Conservative and intellectual describe our President of the Student Council whose leadership ability finds him in many capable positions including CYO President and Captain of the Basketball team.

MARY ELLEN DYAR-----Hard work and much study constitute "the Brain" of the class. Mary Ellen participated in the '57 Drama Festival and was a delegate to the CSMC Convention in Notre Dame for two years.

LAWRENCE MICHAEL FRIES-----Amiable, fun-loving and always ready to lend a helping hand describe a favorite in our class. Larry's pleasing personality helped make him a good representative from PCHS at Boy's State.

TERRENCE HAISLIP-----In his few months at PCHS, Terry's quiet yet sensational disposition has won him many friends. Sports are included among his favorite activities but football ranks highest.

RONALD RAYMOND HILL-----Though entrancing, modest, witty and romantic size up Ronnie, he is also noted for his nattiness in dress. Some of his accomplishments include Drama Festival Delegate in '58 and Basketball Team for one year.

BARBARA HOFBAUER-----Not every newspaper editor has as winning a smile and pleasing disposition as Penny, our Crusader editor. She always has an open ear for new ideas.

RUTH ANN JOYCE-----Alert, pert, and petite describe Ruth Ann. Her captivating personality has aided her in becoming an active member of the Student Council for two years.

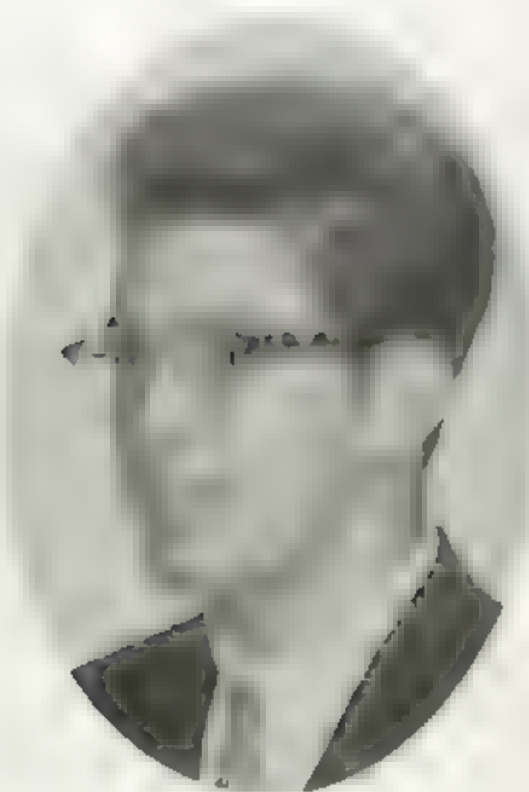

FRANK ANDREW KERRIGAN-----Undemonstrative and unassuming depict the character of the "quietest student". Mister Kerrigan was a delegate to Operation Youth in '58 and is a member of the Crusader Staff.

CATHERINE MARGO MARINARO-----Sweet, sincere and sympathetic is Cathy. Her sparkling personality and dependability have brought her into many class activities such as Secretary of the Freshman Class, President of the Sophomore Class, participating in the '57 Drama Festival, Crusader Staff and Editor of the Omnibus Omnia.

THOMAS MICHAEL MAYBURY-----Tom's quiet and perceptive personality has enabled him to get along with everyone. This has been verified with his election to the Vice Presidency of our class.

DENNIS HUGH McGUIRE-----Dashing, amiable, and dynamic depict Dennis, who, in his one year at PCHS has gained the friendship of many. Coming to us from Wheeling Central, Dennis has been active in basketball, golf, the Omnibus Omnia Staff, and was elected Treasurer of our class.

WILLIAM McQUAID-----Even though "Billy Mac" may seem "tipsy" at times, his suave and animated personality keep him "tops" among all. This has been proven by his many activities.

SANDRA KATHLEEN MOREHEAD-----Energetic, carefree and loveable is Sandy with her vivacious personality. Her poetic ability was proven when she was announced winner of the Catholic Daughter's Poetry Contest in her Sophomore year. Her other activities includes Drama Club, Glee Club, and Co-editor of the Omnibus Omnia.

JANICE DIANE MULLIGAN-----Janice with her amusing ways and striking personality is a favorite among those with whom she comes in contact. Her activities include Drama Club, Chorus, and scribbling down Texas way.

ELIZABETH ANN NEDEFF-----Liz's puissant abilities have been enacted through her agility as a cheerleader, and dancer. Her "sunny" smile spreads an aura of warmth wherever she goes.

HELEN REGINA PITT-----Meek and good-natured reflects the real Jeannie who is always willing to lend a helping hand. Her activities include Glee Club, Library Club and Senior Chorus.

EDWARD THOMAS POTTER-----Student Council, Scholarship Club and Science Club constitute a few of the activities Eddie has participated in. His quiet and sincere nature has secured many friends throughout the years.

MARY LEE RUPPEL-----Timid and tedious characterize this serious student, who has participated in the Sewing Club, Drama Club and Crusader and Omnibus Omnia Staff.

ERMA MARIE RUSIGNUOLO-----The winning smile and contagious disposition of our petite vocalist make her well-liked by all. Erma's many activities include class offices in her Freshman and Sophomore years and Vice-President of the Student Council and Assistant Crusader Editor in her Senior year.

REGINA ANN SANTER-----Like brothers, like sister, we find this little pixie quite capable of holding a number of reliable positions, such as Business Manager of the Yearbook and President of the CSMC and delegate to the CSMC Convention in Notre Dame for two years, and an IFCA member.

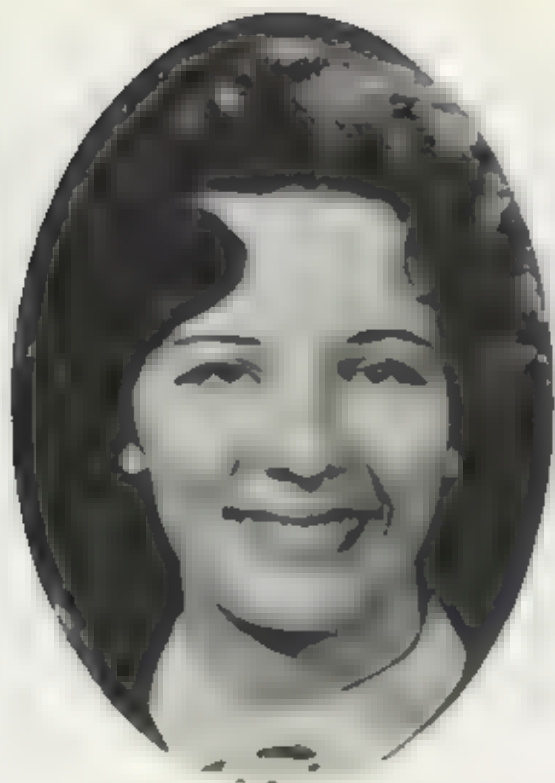

MARTHA JEAN SHEDAN-----Sociable, sophisticated and with a friendly smile is mostly Marty. Her artistic abilities have been shown in both the Crusader and the Omnibus Omnia and we have found her active in cheerleading and holding class offices.

KAREN KATHRYN STRAIN-----Not everyone has the pleasant and friendly attitude towards all, as does Karen. This is plainly seen in her activities which include Crusader reporter, Yearbook Staff, Drama Club and CSMC delegate to Notre Dame.

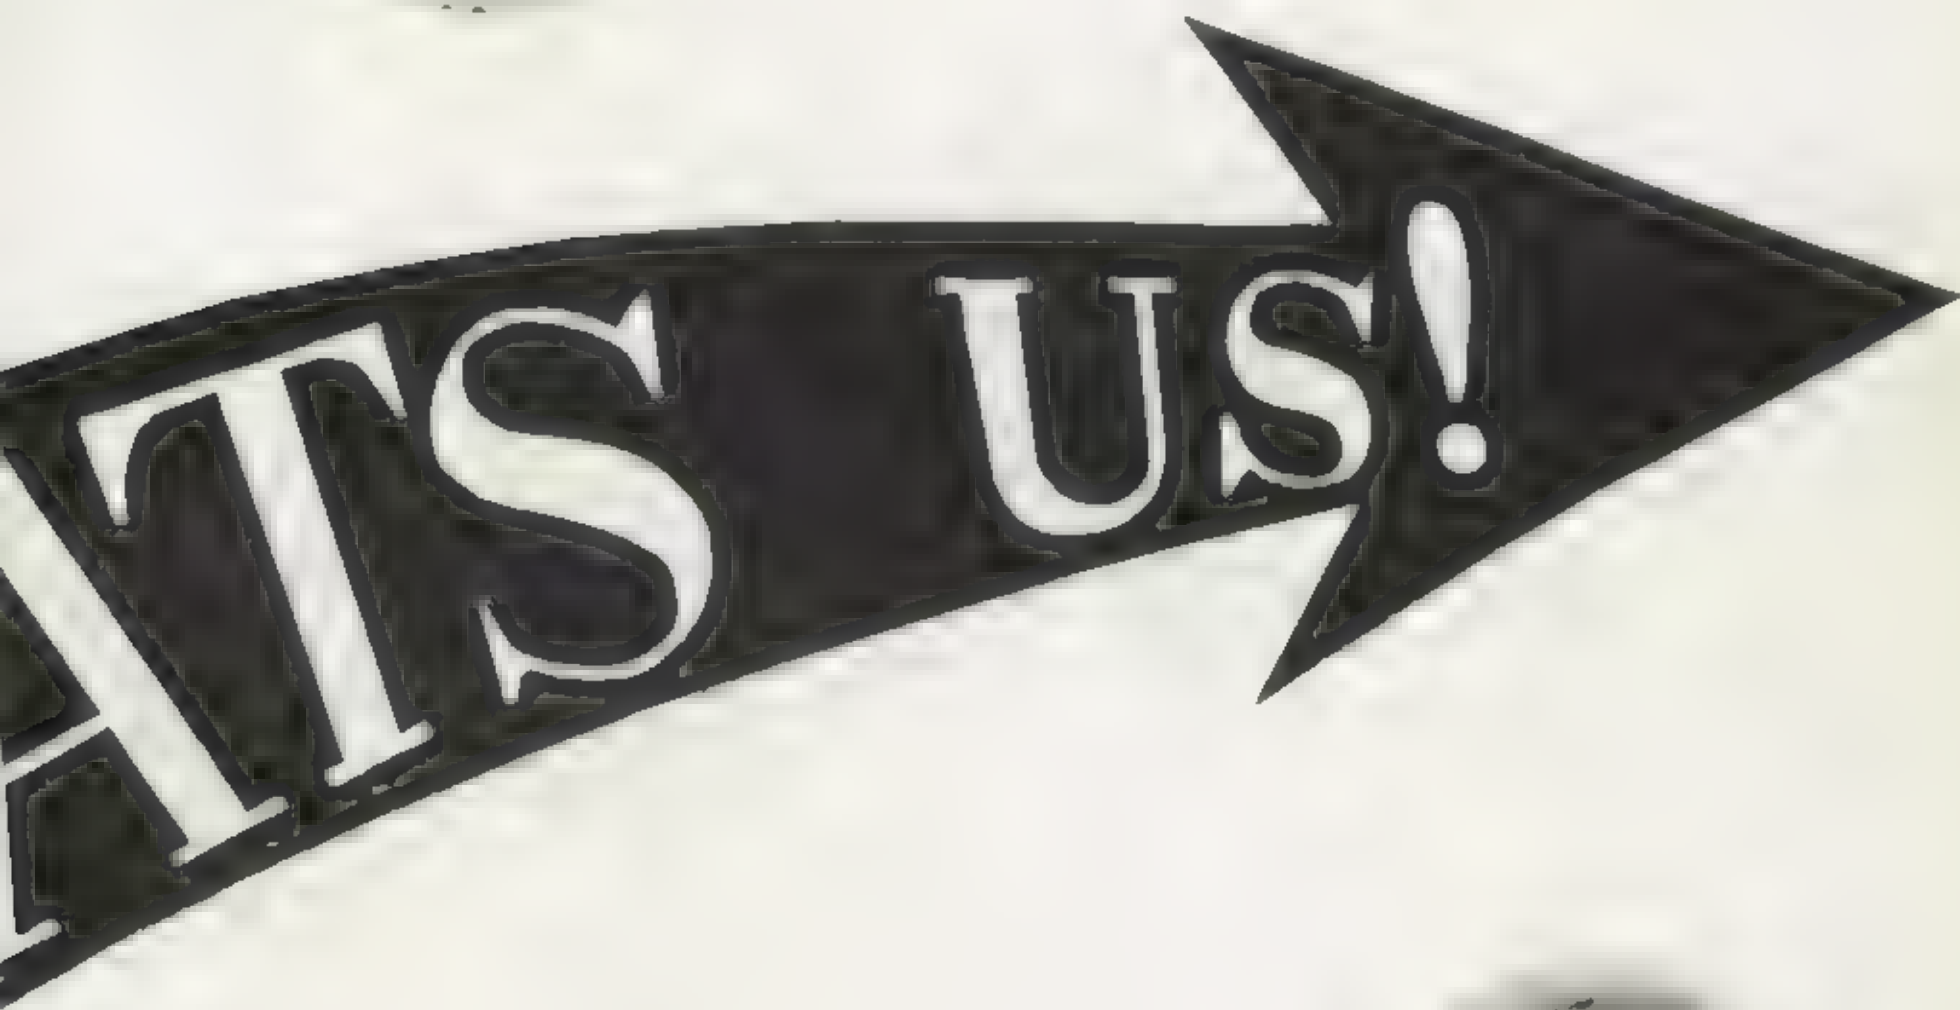

MARY SUSAN WHITLATCH-----Full of vim, vigor and vitality, we find Sue is a capable leader of our class. Always ready for a good laugh, she takes things in their stride. She has been active in many clubs, including the Glee Club and Drama Club and was elected President of the Senior Class.

BARBARA WINDLAND-----Precise, virtuous and always willing to lend a helping hand portrays Barbara. Glee Club, Chorus, Music Teacher for Primary Classes and Secretary to the Principal are a few of her many activities.

BERNARD PATRICK McDONOUGH-----Indispensable and intellectual is Bernie, and his democratic way of living. A few of his activities include Student Councilor, Treasurer of Freshman Class and Yearbook and Crusader Staff.

KATHLEEN BUSBY: I will my seat on the bus to Fran Goudy.

RON HILL: I hereby will my dry sense of humor to Terry Mason.

SANDY MOREHEAD: I will to my brother, Mike, my knowledge of the happenings around me; my regular parking place; but most of all, my prize possession--the green "get-away" car.

LARRY FRIES: I will my executive position at 7th and Liberty Streets to some eager grease-monkey.

RUTH ANN JOYCE: I will to my sister Renee, my "springy-walk".

KAREN STRAIN: I will to Karen McKinney, my date each night with the "special" guy.

MARTHA SHEDAN: I will my position at the Parker Theatre to some unfortunate Junior.

BERNIE McDONOUGH: I will my baseball ability and brains to Bruce Pierson, so that he can raise his 90% average.

JEANNIE PITT: To Mimi Wildt, I will my sleeping pills.

MARY LEE RUPPEL: To Becky Sutton, I will my daily seat in church.

JEANNIE SANTER: I hereby will to Barbara Brock, my excessive love for driving.

MARY ELLEN DYAR: I will my Solid Geometry book to anyone dumb enough, or unfortunate enough to use it.

DENNIS MCGUIRE: To Jim Roberts, I hereby will all the green rabbits in Vienna.

CATHY MARINARO: I hereby will to Kay Taylor, my close contact with the Morehead family, and my straight A in Deportment.

JANICE MULLIGAN: Being of sound mind, I hereby bequeath my perfect attendance record for this year to Ted Haddox.

SUE WHITLATCH: Being favorable of blondes, I hereby leave my bottle of "Light and Bright" to Pat Finn.

CAROLYN CRAWLEY: I will my love of cheering and my position as school secretary to Pat Parker.

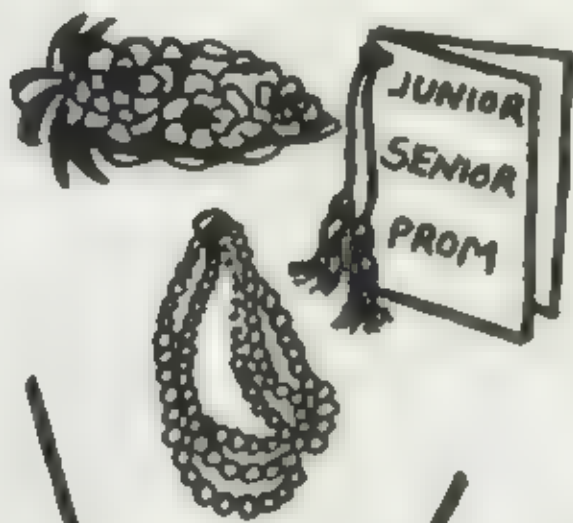

KAREN CORAM: I will to an unknown Junior, all the crazy and wonderful laughs I've had.

ERMA RUSIGNUOLO: I will my vast picture collection of Bret Maverick and front-row center TV seat on Sunday nights to Pat Myers.

VINCE DOYLE: I will to Chuck Roedersheimer, all the trials and tribulations of Student Council Presidency.

LINDA BARSOTTI: I will to Nancy Crowley, my obsession for red.

JUNIORS

An amiable and energetic foursome who have led this class through many of the trials and tribulations which the Junior year presents are: Charles Abdella, Mike Morehead, Becky Sutton, Jeff Jones.

EDUCATION

SENIOR RELIGION

This year we find the Seniors undertaking two courses in Religion--one is a general religion course and the other is a matrimonial guidance course under the direction of Father Park.

JUNIOR RELIGION

A guidance course as well as one on Church history are the two subjects of concern in the Junior class this year.

JUNIOR ENGLISH

Here we find some journalistic-minded Juniors preparing one of their English projects-"The April Fool"-a class newspaper.

SENIOR ENGLISH

Literary masterpieces pass under the careful eye of the Senior scholars. Here they are deeply engrossed in the intricate study of Shakespeare's "Macbeth", while Sister Mary Innocentia attempts to explain the text.

ALGEBRA I

Mother Frances Teresa doesn't let one problem go unsolved in her Algebra I Class, as we see her explaining the unknown to a student.

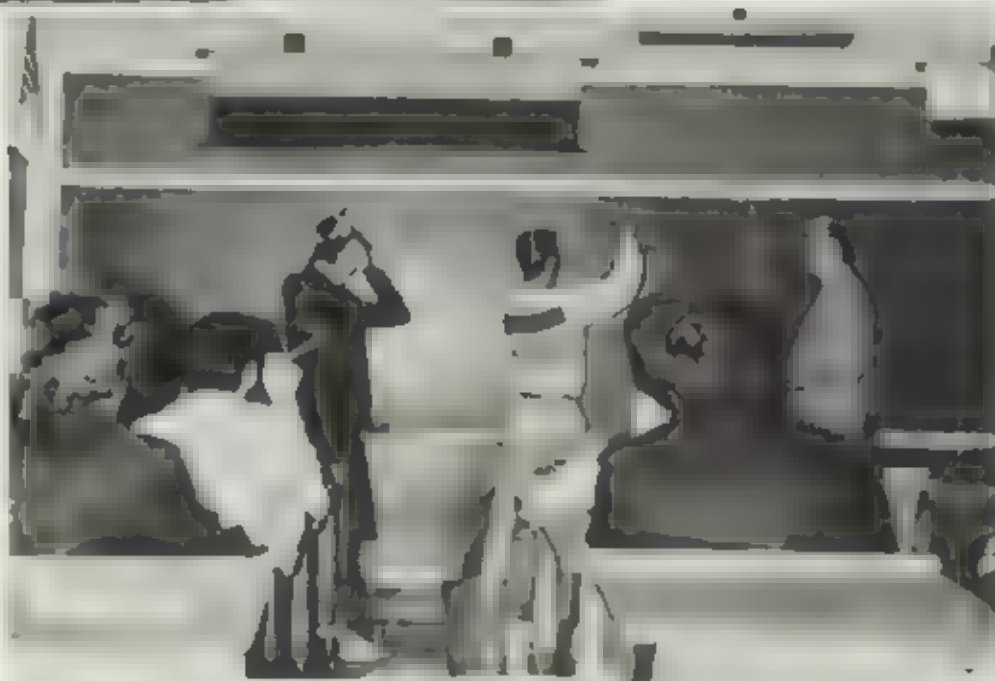

PLANE GEOMETRY

The intricacies of Plane Geometry are plainly demonstrated by a number of students contemplating this course under the direction of Sister Mary Aquinas.

GENERAL MATH

Mr. Tharp, a competent teacher, imparts his knowledge of General Math to his students. He seems to be enjoying it too, or did someone crack a joke?

SOLID GEOMETRY

"Time out for play"--Sister Anna Veronica steals a moment of fun as she tosses a spheroid to a sleepy student.

MATHEMATICS

GENERAL SCIENCE

Sister Anna Veronica is seen here reading over a chapter with some of our future scientists.

Two of her students won 3rd prize in one of the Science Fairs.

BIOLOGY

Mr. Paulette's class looks rather dismayed as they copy some drawings from the board. Could it be the course?

PHYSICS

"Draw and explain the variations in sound waves" This may have been one of the questions the class is trying to answer in this test. Is it really that hard Mary Ellen?

COMMERCIAL ARTS

TYPING I

Sister Mary Innocentia is explaining the fundamentals of typing to Pat while the other students busily prepare an assignment.

TYPING II

Here we find a number of diligent Seniors engrossed in a time test under the supervision of Sister Mary Innocentia. This will aid them in obtaining capable positions in commercial work.

SHORTHAND I

Here we find Sister Mary Innocentia giving dictation to a number of ambitious students.

SHORTHAND II

Longhand

The only class that can write longhand faster than shorthand.

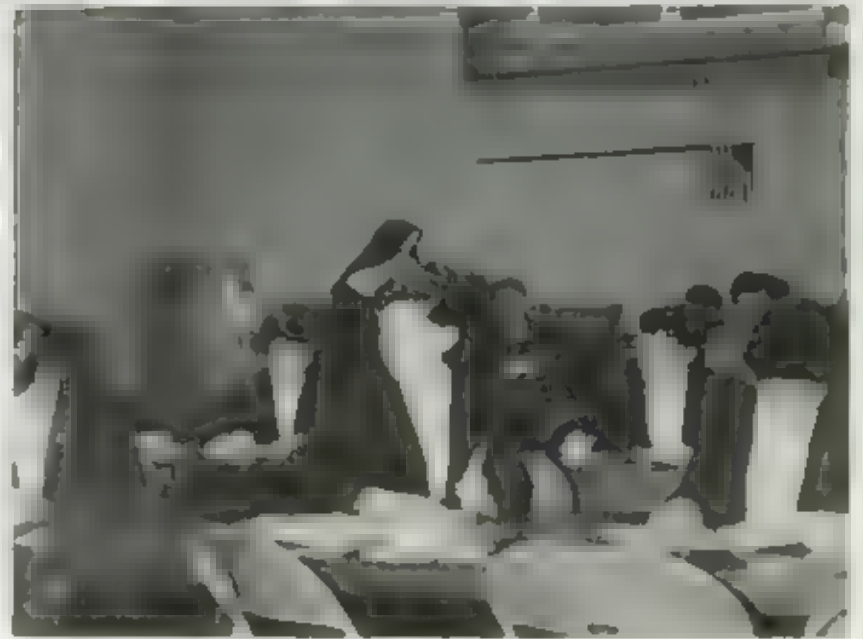

LATIN I

Veni, Vidi, Vici--with this motto in mind the Freshmen conquered Latina Lingua.

LATIN II

Sister Mary Alfreda's Latin II students find translating the history and legends of ancient Roma an interesting accomplishment as we see here.

CLASE DE ESPANOL

Nos sentimos que el cuadro dela clase de espanol de '58-'59 con la profesora Maria Aquinas, N.J.P. se han perdido debido a nuestra negligencia.

Asi, en vez de un cuadro o series de cuadros tentiamos uno sumario de nuestro clase mas favorita y interesante. Asistimos a ese clase cada dia desde doce y media hasta las uno y media. Su esta hora estamos muy perzosos pero muy contento. Como por nuestros complimientoes, estan muchos pero un poco lejos el asunto.

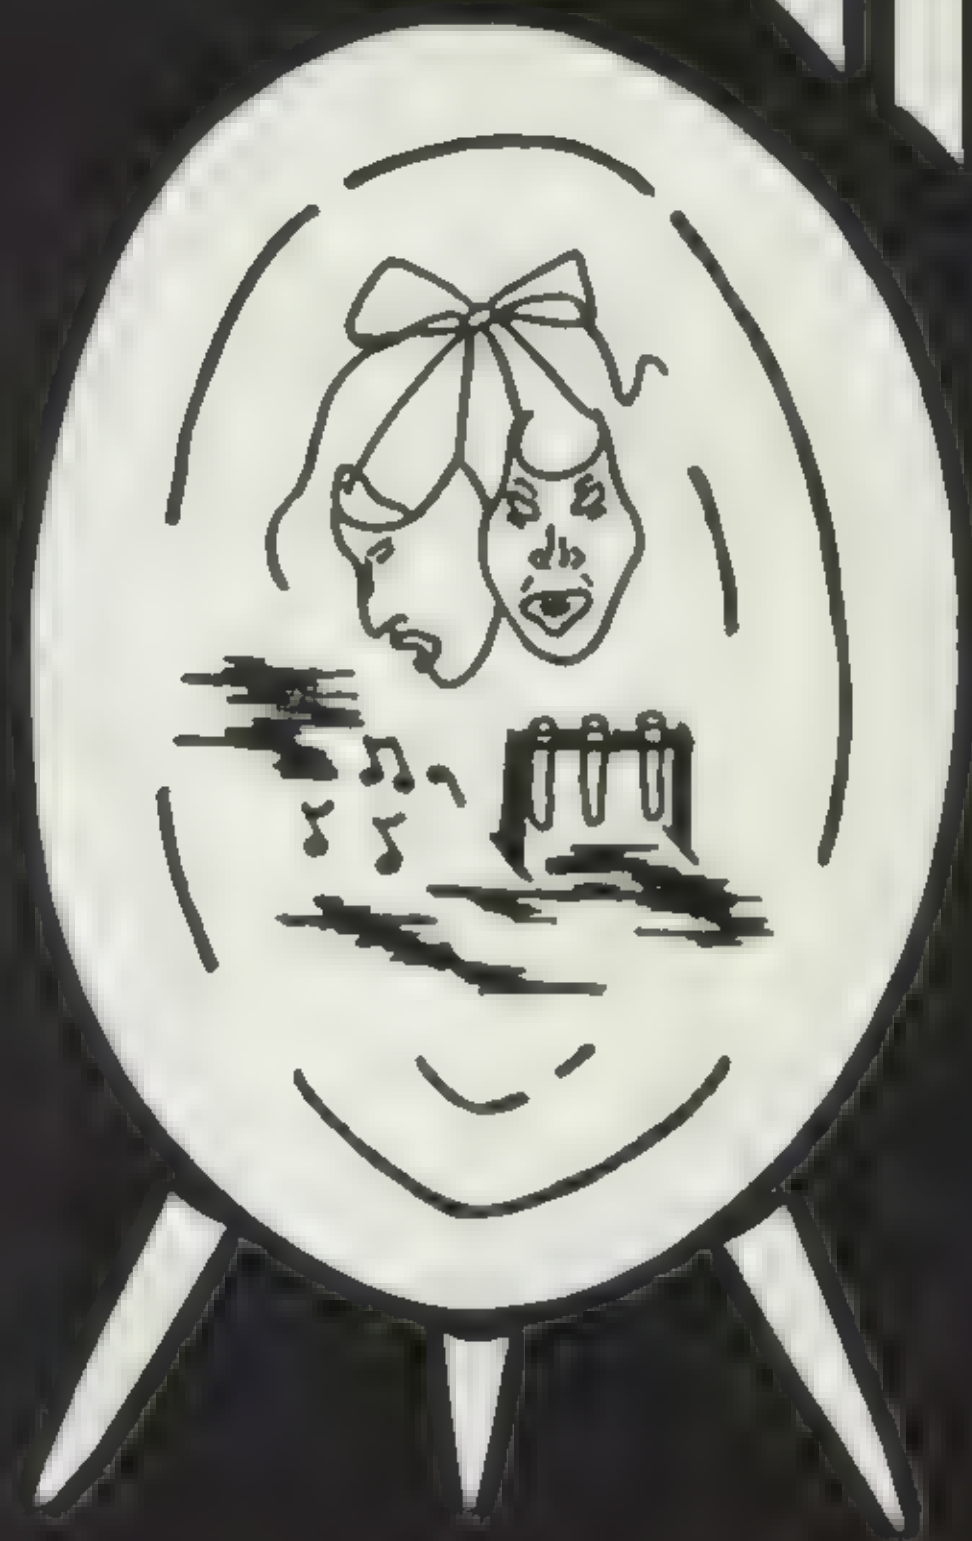

Como por nuestra maestra, ella se muy compredienda y nos gusta ella, sin embargo tenemos un via extraordinario de exhibirlo. En clase parte del tiempo se como uno de nos, eso nos gusta.

Despues hemos estado en clase de espanol, no aprendemos solo acerca de Espana y la lengua pero estamos aprendemos tambien mucho por nuestros companeros.

De todos nuestros clases eso se ha estado la favorita y esos quien no volorian, erria esa clase, sobre todo, sus ensazo y tristes.

ACTIVITIES

ART CLUB

Assistant Art Editor of Omnibus Omnia, Martha Shedan, worked diligently on the art production of the '59 yearbook. The originality of the work is due to the initiative of both Martha and Art Editor, Bill Deem.

GLEE CLUB

Do-re-me-fa-so this musically inclined group proved to be one of the best glee clubs in the history of P.C.H. They have been guided by the capable direction of Sisters Anna Veronica and Mary Aquinas.

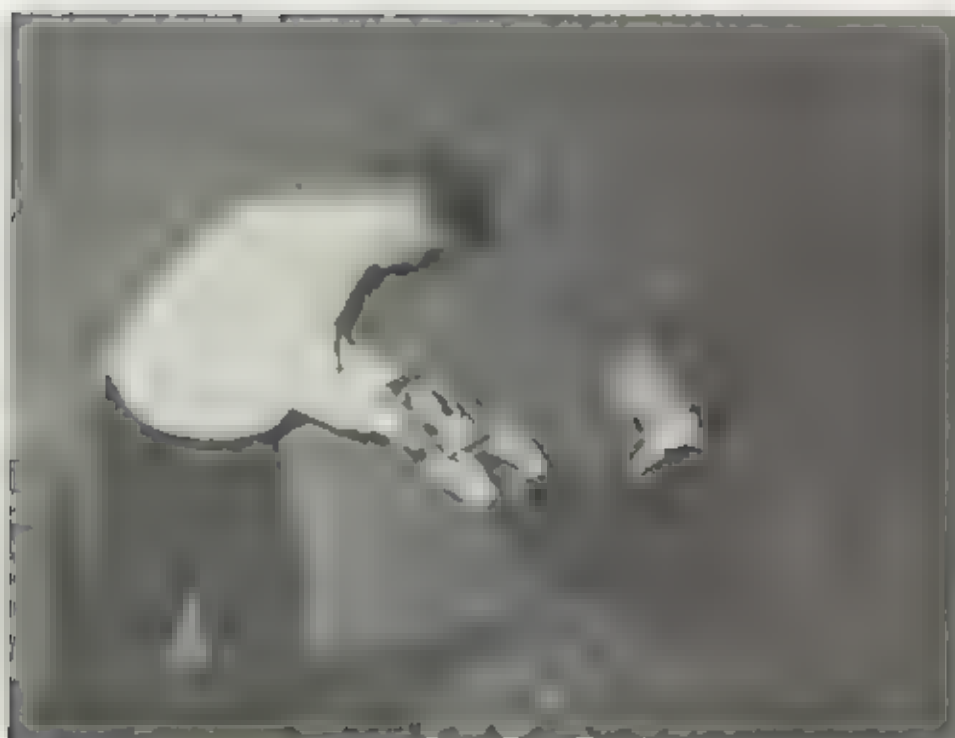

SCIENCE CLUB

Second-place winners at the Science Fair in Marietta, Ohio were our own scientists--Greg Spence and Danny Vogel.

"A CUP OF KINDNESS"

Select students of the high school made up the delegates to the State Catholic Drama Festival in Morgantown. In this candid shot, we see Rev. Mother Frances Teresa prompting the actors in a difficult scene.

"FOG IN THE VALLEY"

D R A M A

"GHOST WANTED"

Here we find five seniors unexpectedly caught at practice for "Ghost Wanted", our Senior Class Play.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

The girls of the high school made up the cast for the Christmas pageant "Causa Nostrae Laetitiae", which was presented in the gym, to the public on December 15.

Judy Rebhan and our Coach's son, Mike, are shown as Blessed Mother and the Infant Jesus.

Regina Santer and three small angels portray "The Expectation of Our Lady."

A rhythmic interpretation of the "Magnificat" is rendered by the Senior girls.

SOCIAL

FRESHMEN DANCE

The Freshmen were swaying and "Swinging with Spring," as they and others enjoyed one of the first dances of the Spring Season.

SENIOR CLASS DANCE

Are they showing off or pretending that they are in a dream world? Linda, Sandy and Susie have just completed decorations for one of our Senior dances--- Spring Renaissance, which was termed a success.

ALUMNI DANCE

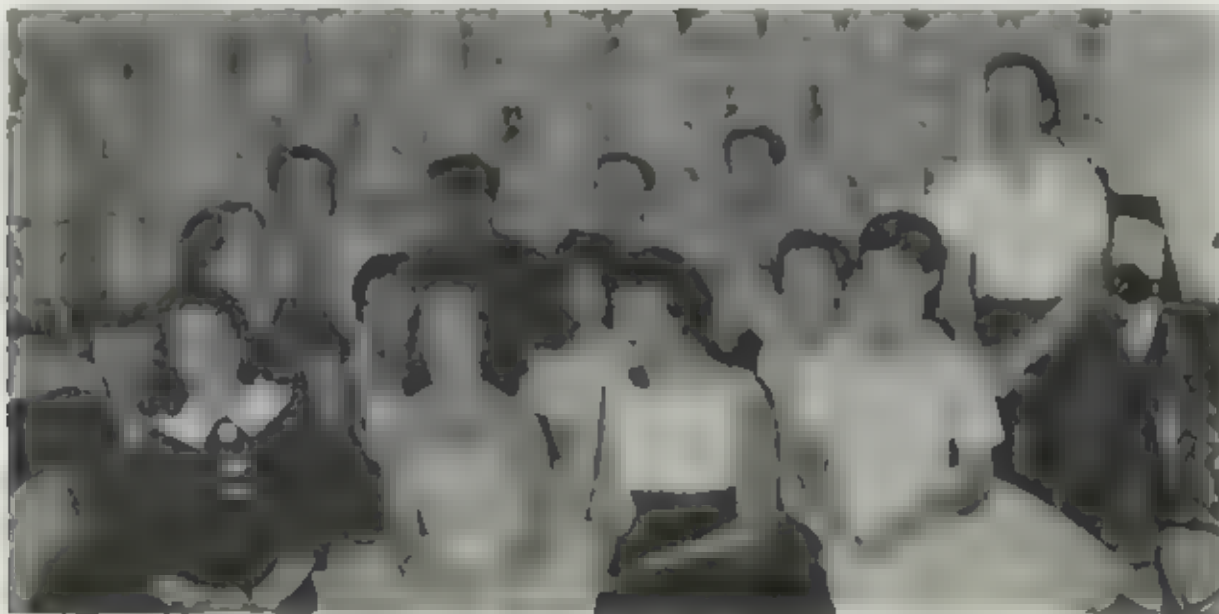

A new tradition began this year with a semi-formal dance after the annual Crusader-Alumni Game. Here we see a number of students dancing at the Silver Bells Ball sponsored by our Student Council.

Surprised Susie? Surprise birthday parties were one of the Senior trends this year as is depicted above.

Vince, we didn't know you had a twin-brother; but you both seem to be having a good time in places.

This jolly group is sitting pretty at one of the many parties that helped make their Senior year a memorable one.

Adding more Christmas Spirit around the school, were the Sophomores who were packed to the brim with holiday cheer.

Say 'cheese'! A happy group of party-goers take time out for a pose. Isn't that right, Mr. Gaiety?

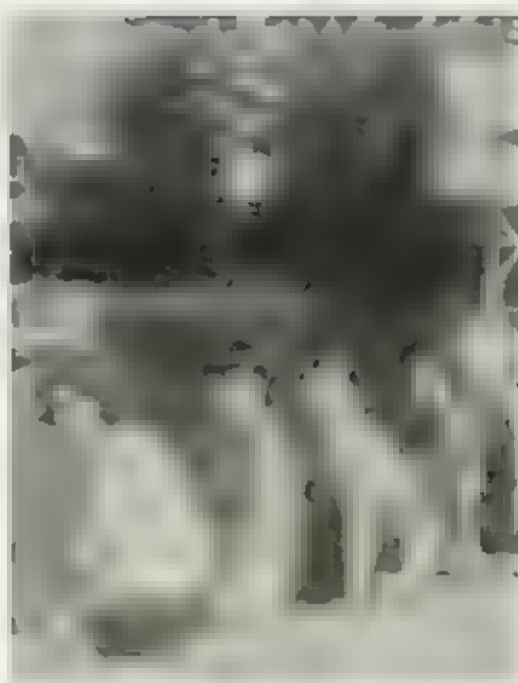

PARTIES

P A S T I M E S

"Aw, go ahead Sandy-- you can't do any more than drown". All joking aside we can see that Sandy is really having fun.

Is that Sammy Snead? A closer glimpse tells us it's P. C. H.'s own golfer-Ted Haddox.

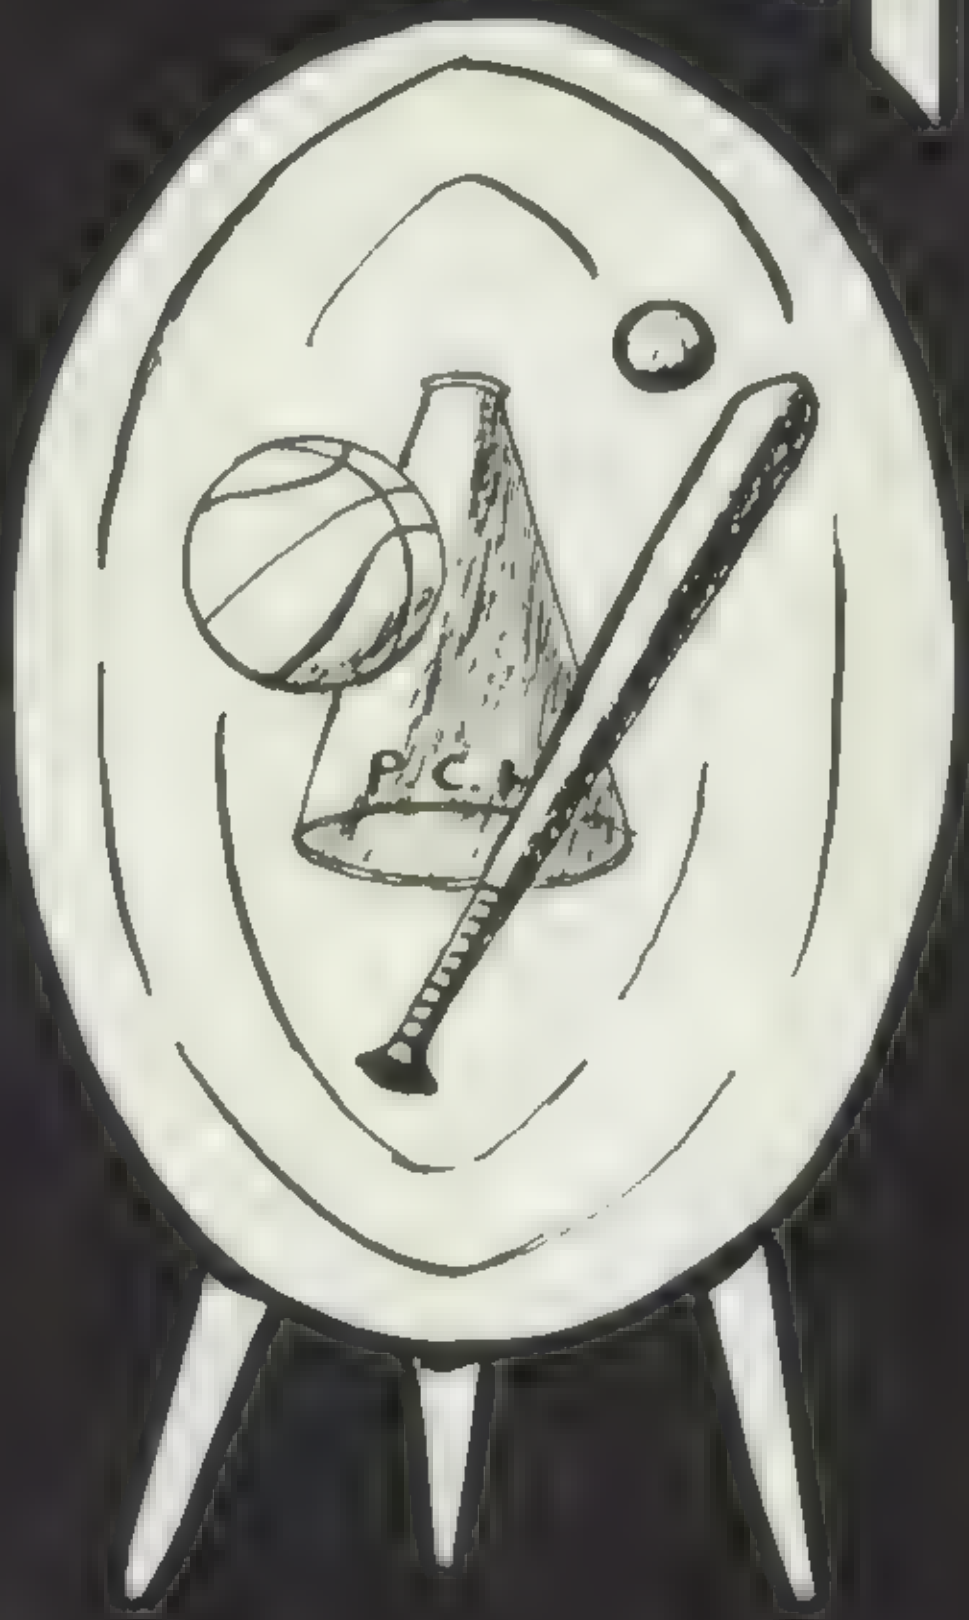

A bevy of bathing beauties? Senior girls find basking in the sun and posing for pictures a good combination.

You don't have to pose Judy--you can ride around on your famous brother's fame, alias, Tony Curtis.

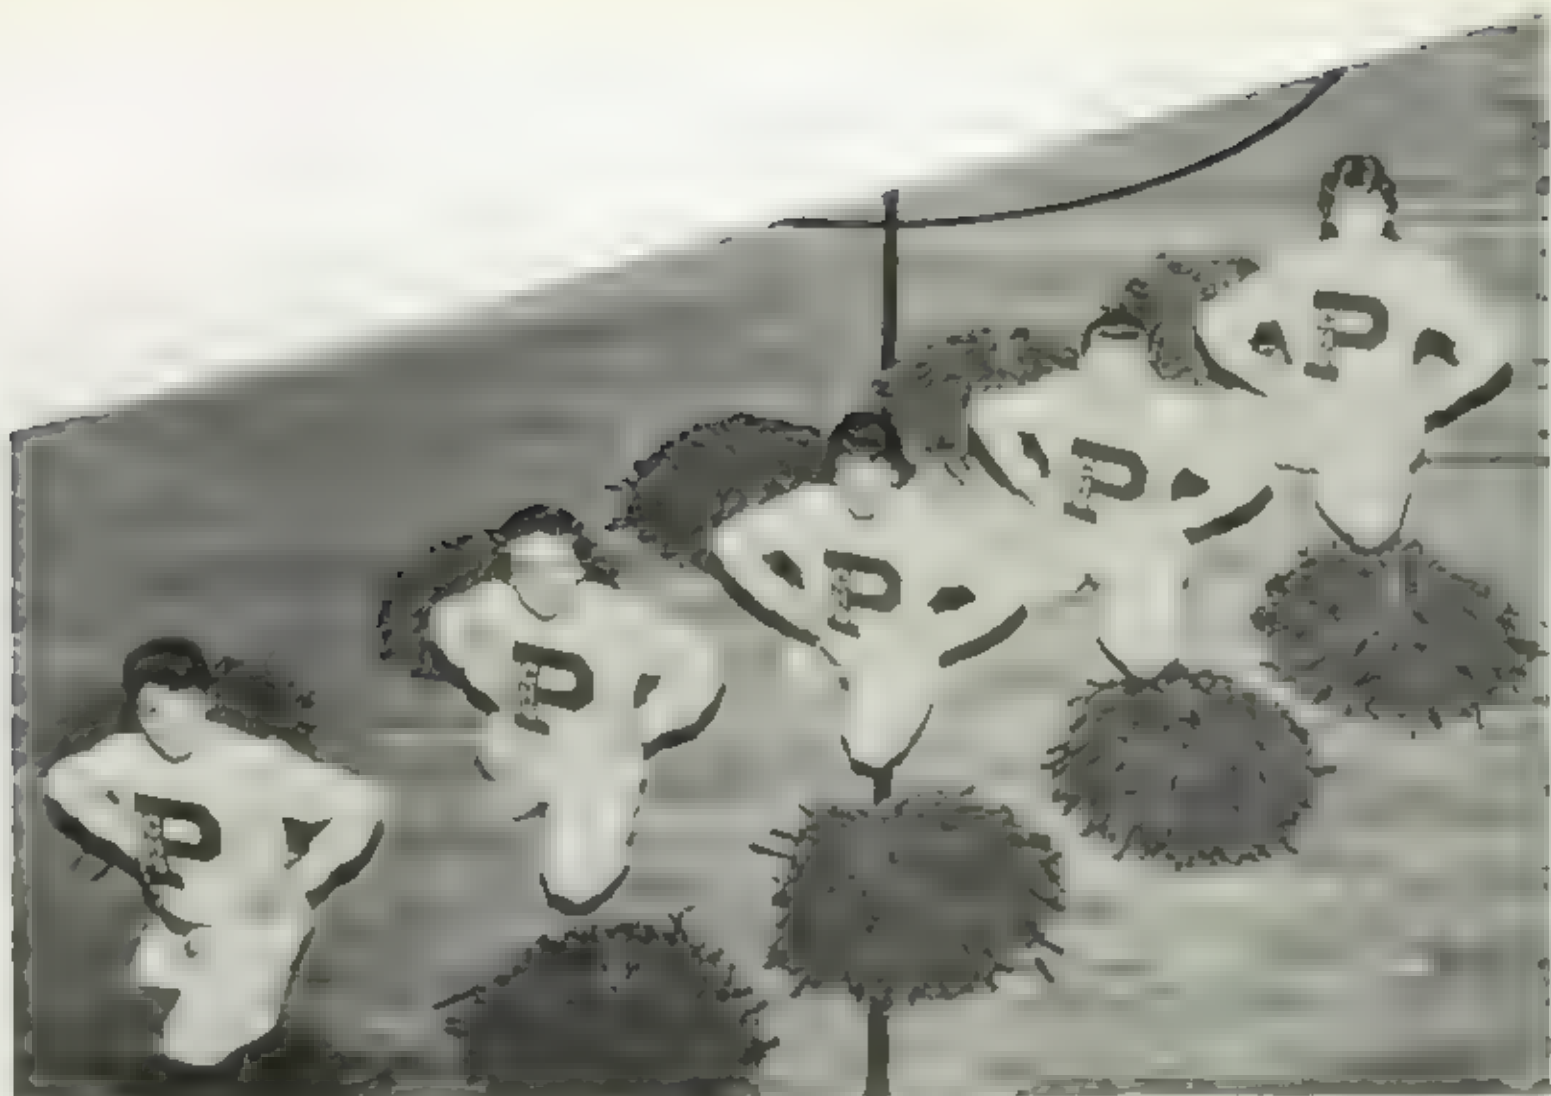

Vince and Tom turn from a cool dip as an unexpected snap is taken.

SPORTS

B A C K B O N E

Our terrific cheerleaders are shown here displaying their original and precise talent. Throughout the year, these 5 girls have led the fans and the team through victory and struggle. The petite girls from left to right are: Carolyn Crawley, Head Cheerleader; Peggy Griffin, Patti Parker, Mimi Wildt, Judy Rebhan.

School spirit, as shown by these loyal Crusader fans, is one of the fine attributes displayed by P. C. H. S. students.

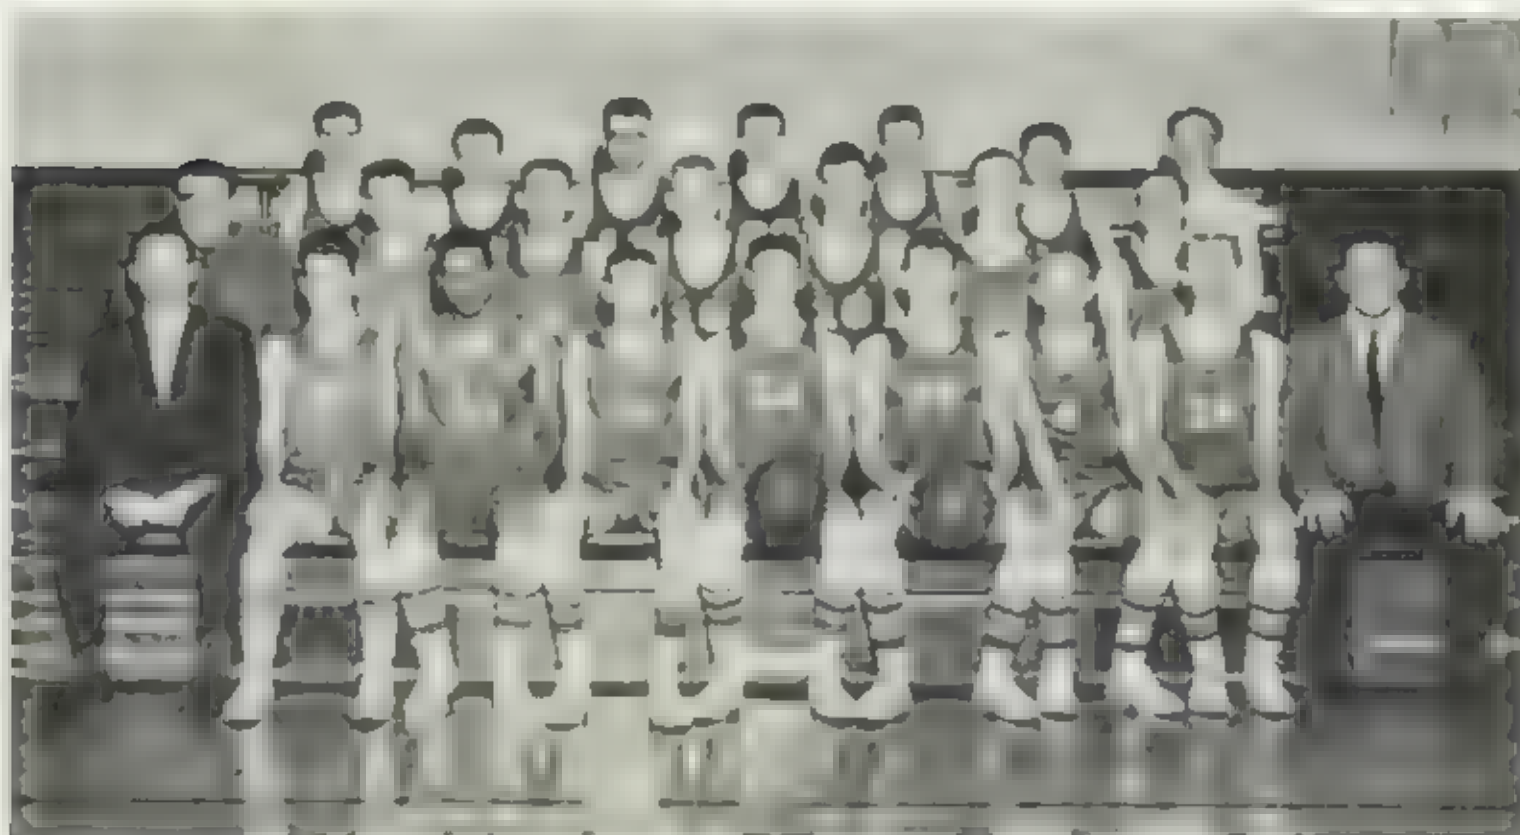

The necessary directing and coaching of these three mighty men has not only made good sportsmen of the boys, but also, fine young men.

B A S K E T B A L L

Coach Andrew Tonkavich is a credit, as well as an asset to P. C. H. This well-abled coach has taught the members of his team to be good athletes; but more important--good boys.

This agile group of young men will be remembered as a "fighting squad". Through the able leadership of Gooley, and Coaches Andy and John, they have earned their title as good sportsmen.

Assistant Coach Paulette, though new at P. C. H., has been accepted as a very good coach and teacher.

Working an effective defense, we see our fighting team as they set out again to win the game.

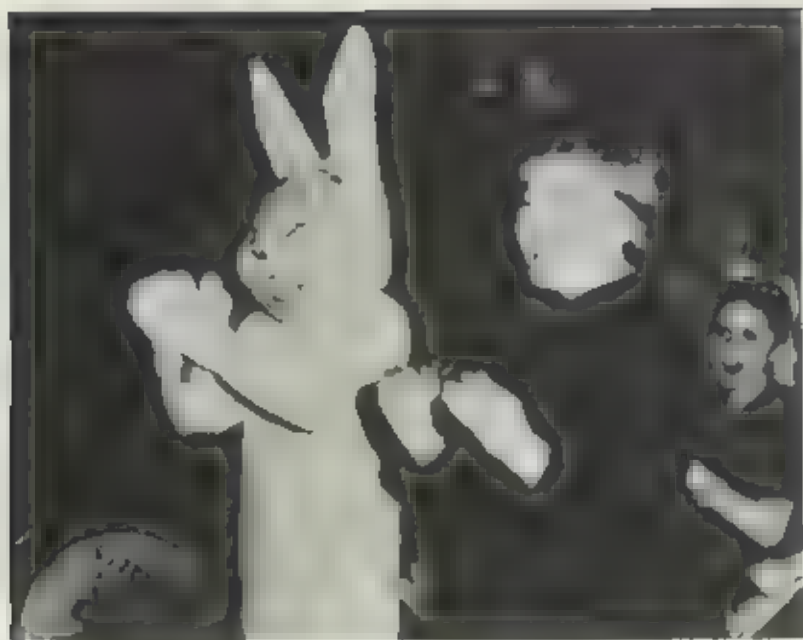

"Time out" as Coach Andy instructs the boys on team strategy, as the other members look on.

Dennis passes the ball to Ed Althart as an opposing player tries very hard to block it-- we wonder if he succeeded.

Captain Vince Doyle prepares to shoot at the foul line so as to put the Crusaders back in the lead.

"Hop to it Crusaders"--our chosen theme is enacted here by our hippity-hoppity mascot-Charley Abdella.

Look alive Chuck--It's Tournament Time! We're out to win!!

When Carlton is not singing, he's sleeping!

What's wrong--think I'm going to win all your money?

What seems to be the excitement in the hall, fellows?

Tired, but proud and happy, our five Cheers pose for a snap on their triumphant return home with the trophy for the best cheerleaders of the '59 Tournament.

Once again, our Carolyn captures the trophy for the best individual cheerleader of the Tourney. We're proud of you, Carolyn.

For the second time in five years, P. C. H. returned home with a queen. Martha reigned over the '59 Tourney successfully and also proved that P. C. H. girls have it !!

I N T R A M U R A L S

The vivacious Sophs are shown revealing some hidden talent as they cheer their team to victory. What a squad!

Just don't stand there Mark--those Sophomores constitute a tough team.

Maybe the Senior girls can't cheer, but they can surely yell!

Jump-ball, jump-ball, get it, get it." Come on Seniors--you can't let the Sophs become Champs again!!

M A D A T T E M P T S

Hey Girls! the basketball floor is no place for a gab session.

Wake up! This is the biggest game of the season---"Bon-Tons" lead 2-0.

Good jump, Susie! The "Bon-Tons" would be losers without your basketball ability.

Hey Jeannie--the basket is at the other end of the floor. Oh well, we know you can't live up to your brothers' reputations.

ATHLETIC BANQUET

The guest speaker at our annual athletic banquet this year was the NCAA championship runner-up coach, Fred Schaus of W. V. U. whom we see here addressing the group.

Carolyn Crawley, a veteran cheerleader, gives us her usual big smile as she receives her fourth cheering letter.

Coach John Paulette, in the absence of Coach Andy, gives Dennis, another newcomer, his letter.

A boy, who put much effort into becoming a good athlete--we find Bernie attaining his goal as he receives his letter in baseball

B A S E B A L L

A sport that is gradually taking shape at P. C. H. S. is that of baseball. There are many obstacles that face our coach and team yet they still continue in the hopes that someday we will have a baseball team as well as many other phases of athletics. Pictured above we see the Crusader baseball team of 1959. They are. FIRST ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT: Ted Haddock, Dennis McGuire, John Potts, Bernie McDonough, Joe Joyce, Jim Joyce, Chuck Roedersheimer, Carlton Young and Terry Haislip. SECOND ROW: Assistant Coach John Paulotte, Jeff Jones, Charley Abdella, Skip Nesbitt, Larry Hattman, Terry Mason, Jack Yench and Coach Andrew Tonkovich.

MEMORIES

'M E M B E R

...our first big dance and didn't we think that was it? Golly we even got to stay out until 10:00!

...a big day in our little lives? We were confirmed--see how angelic we were?

...the days before Paris Island and the bets you used to make?

...Linda's eighth birthday--and oh how we loved to pin the tail on the donkey!

...all the trials and tribulations encountered before we became full-fledged Freshmen?

...us back as kindergarten babies and the silly things we used to do (still do)?

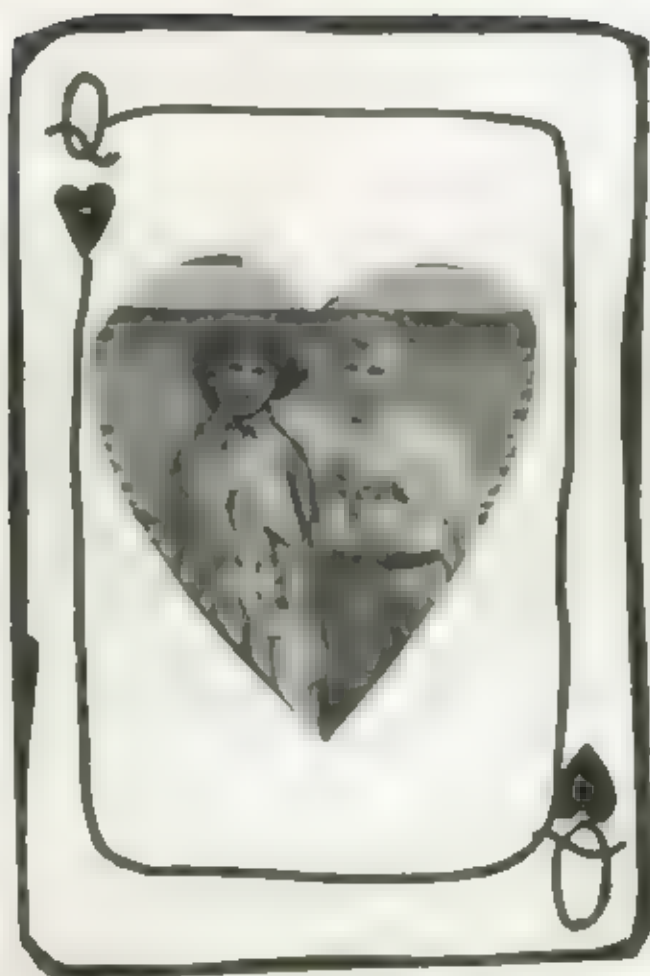

...the days when we used to play cowboys and Indians--who got to be Roy Rogers?

...the days we supposedly did a ballet in the Christmas pageant?

...THE CLASS CARDS?

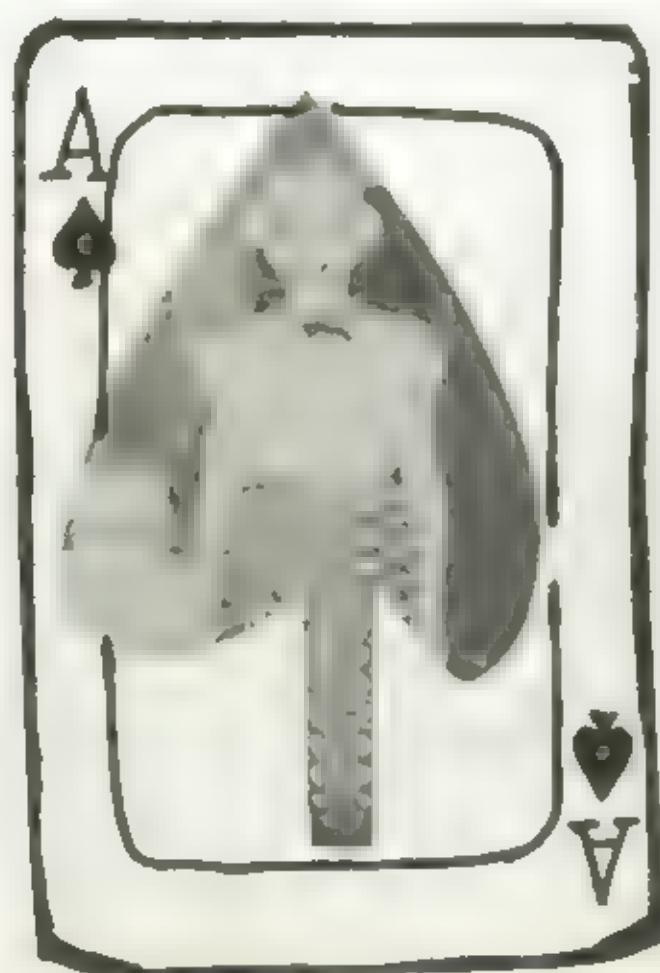

...Liz and Mike--a Syrian friendship that has lasted through the years?

...Barb and Jeannie and their patriotism to the "Blue Denims"?

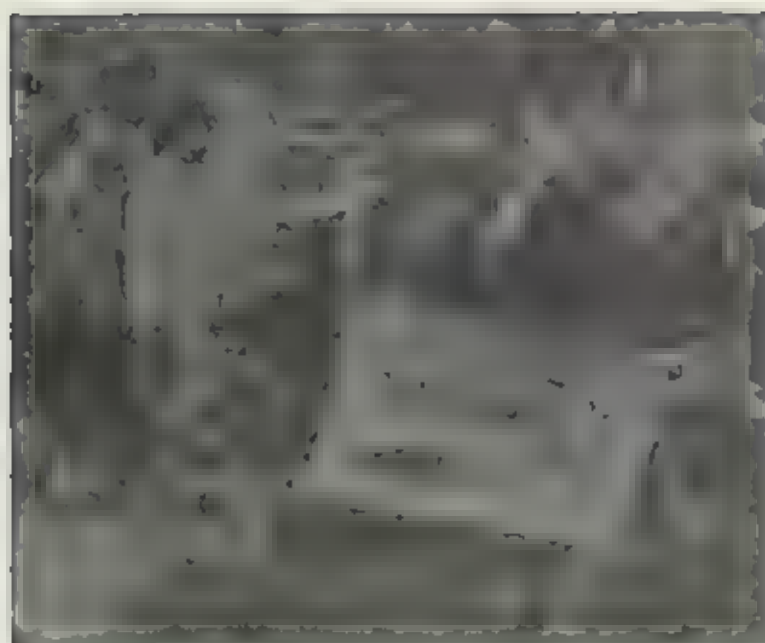

...Bernie as our little girl on Initiation Day, who liked to dip pigtails in ink-wells?

...Cathy and Eddie as our inseparable Freshmen?

OFF TO HUNTINGTON

Out to beat St. Pete's; few followed the Crusaders as the Freshmen remained envious.

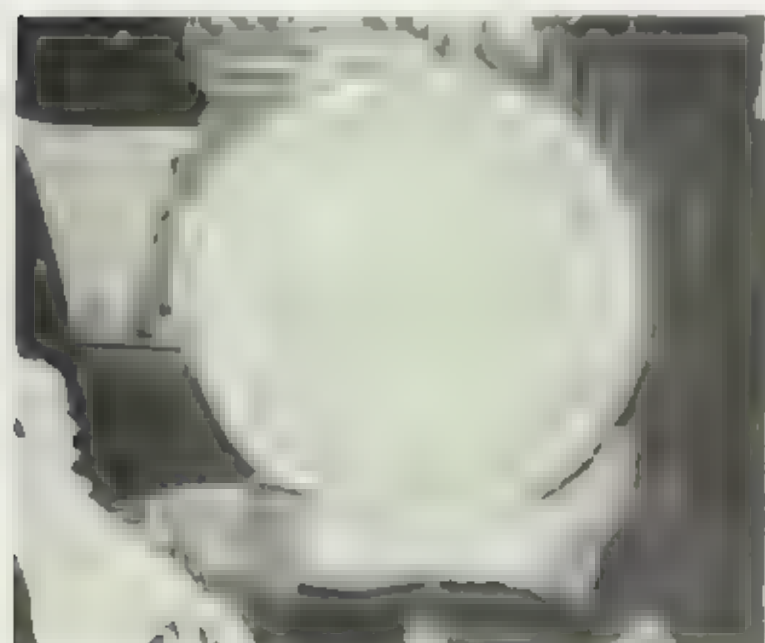

"Tops" and we almost made it as we went to the finals (also, made up for missing last years' toumney)!

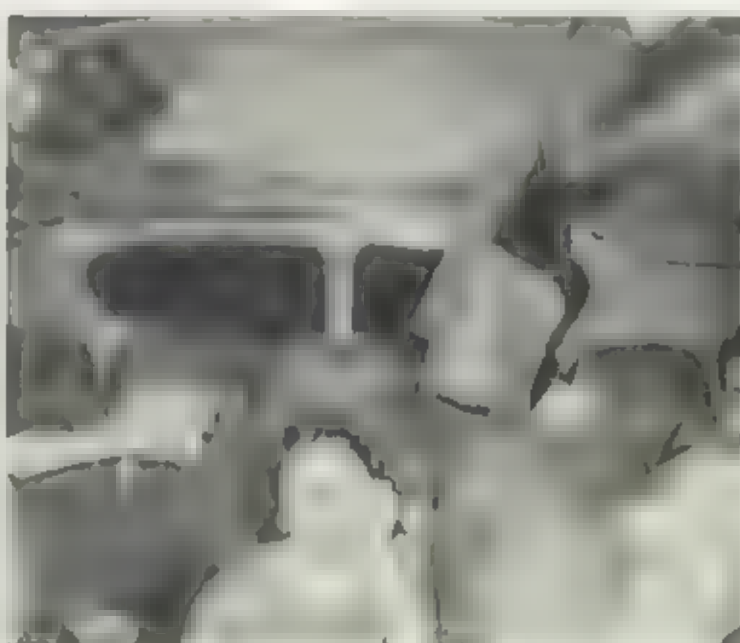

Returning from another victory-our sailors still haven't stopped cheering.

Our Senior Trip to Huntington proved fruitful as our girls copped many honors.

Loss didn't stand in our way, we were still proud of our team!

3 00 a. m. . --Almost home--tired and worn out, but holding many memories.

OUR DANCES

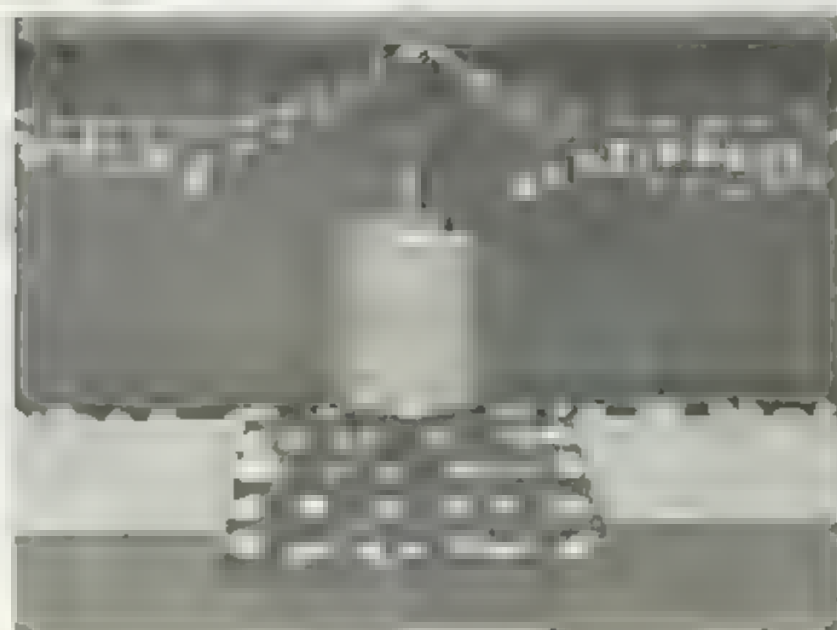

We'll always remember our first dance at P. C. H. --Freshmen Spring-time Frolic!

A memorable dance and decorative at that was our Sophomore brain storm--April Showers.

Enjoyable and also profitable was another we'll never forget--our Junior dance--Autumn Leaves.

Our last dance at our Alma Mater will always remain another treasured memory--Spring Renaissance.

I N V E S T I T U R E

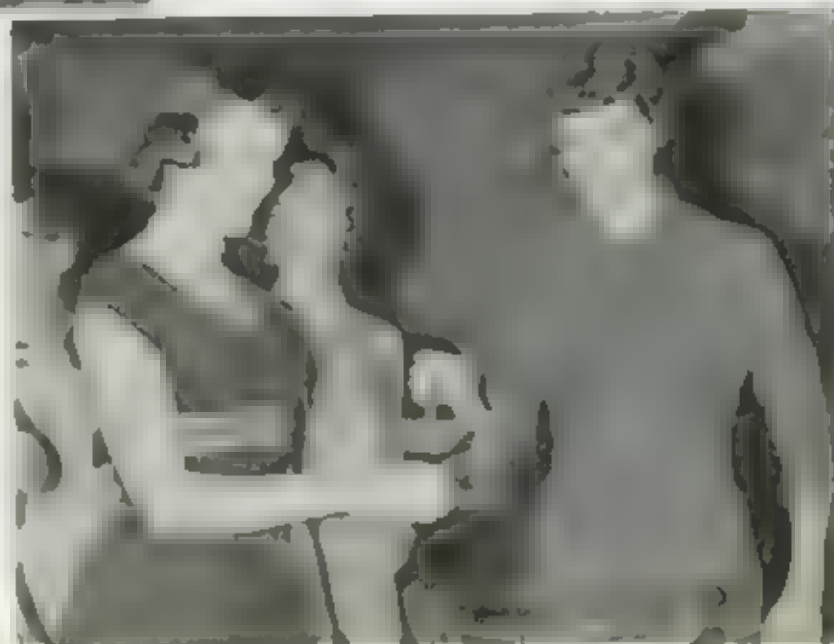

Finally the long-awaited night came and we received from the hands of our administrator, Monsignor John B. O'Reilly-our Senior class rings in an impressive church ceremony.

As a happy group of full-fledged Seniors, we leave Church after the reception of the rings.

Here Susie, our Senior class president shows off her ring to Junior class prexy, Charley Abdella as the other officers look on.

Judy Rebhan serves punch to Jeannie Santer at the traditional party given by the Juniors to honor the Seniors after the ring ceremony.

The traditional May Services were held again this year, more beautiful than previous years. The senior girls, dressed in blue gowns, formed the court for their May Queen, Barbara Windland. Barbara was chosen for this high and well-deserved honor by a student body vote. Assisting Barbara were Regina Santer, crown-bearer and Erma Rusignuolo carrying the prayer card.

Throughout the years, Blessed Mother has guided the steps of our class and by participating in this May Crowning, we felt that we were expressing some of our gratitude to her.

The entire Senior class helped to make this play a success as those unsung heroes helped behind stage and in preparing the production.

GHOST WANTED

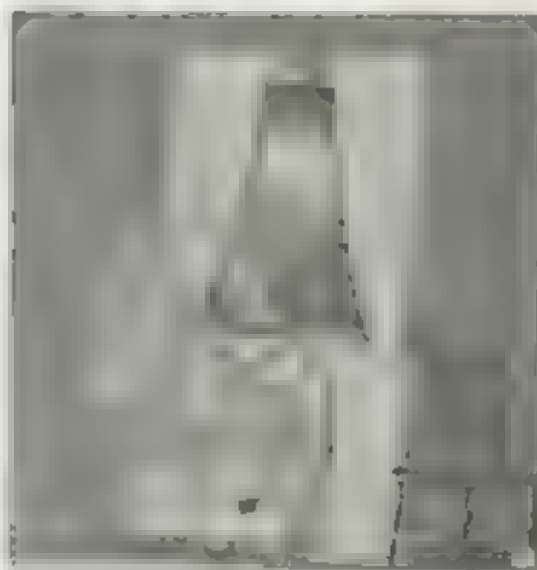

by Guernsey LePelley

Hugo Bromley and Jeff Hall come to Ramshead Rock in answer to the ad: "Ghost Wanted--full time, healthful work, haunting lovely island home. Apply Ramshead Rock."

Upon arrival they became acquainted with Ginger and Gale Stormgay, the granddaughters of Granny Kate. The purpose of the ad is to cure Granny of a prediction for voodooism and the companionship of the Professor.

In the course of events, the four plan to impersonate a drowned fisherman, but this backfires when someone else plots it first. After this, many mysteries follow until the secret panel and passageways are discovered.

This leads to the eventual solution of the mystery--that the island served as an arsenal for a foreign spy ring and that Hatcher, the houseman, was the spy and the Professor and Madam Zolga, government officials.

Mark Brossman	. . . Drama
Regina Santer	. . . Mission activities
Linda Barsotti	. . . Shorthand

The editor of P. C. H. 's best "Crusader", captures her well-earned Journalism award.

Valedictorian, Mary Ellen Dyar, addresses the group with her parting notes of thanks to all.

The finale of the night was the presentation of our class gift to our beloved principal, Sister Mary Innocentia.

Honored guests at the brunch given for the Senior class of '59, were Rev. Robert Park, Sisters of P. C. J., Gooley Marchi, and Mrs. Carl Avington.

The Seniors enjoyed a delicious brunch following Graduation Mass. The luscious meal was prepared by Mrs. L. Marchi and Mrs. P. Abdella and served by the Junior girls.

Note the puzzled look on Mark's face as he chooses between coffee and milk. (Big Decision).

A striking conversation always hits the spot after a delicious meal!

OUR GOAL

Rev. Robert Wanstreet intelligently advises the new young men and women of the world on how to meet the obstacles that face them.

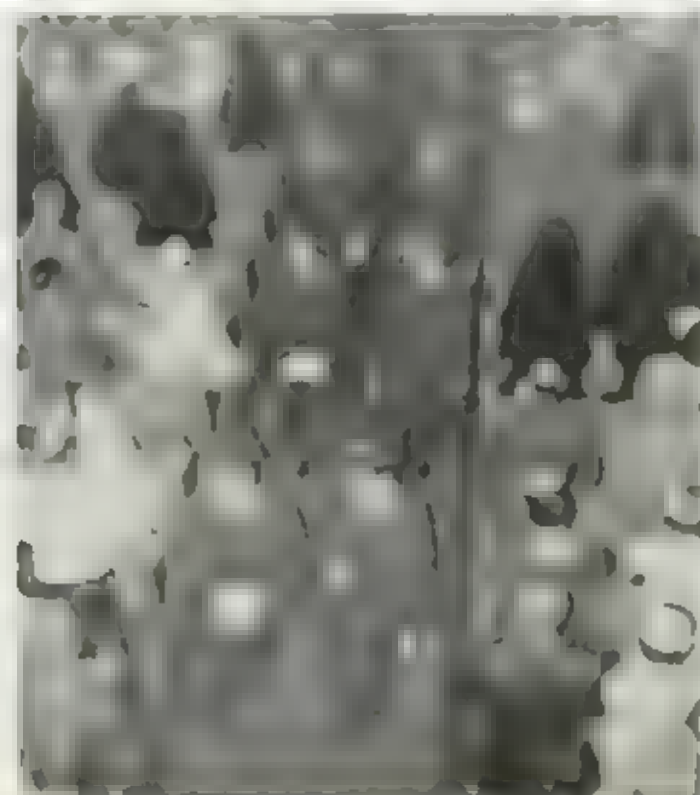

Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. B. O'Reilly graciously bestows to each Senior, his well-earned diploma.

Smiles of joys and tears of sorrow overcome each Senior as they leave as graduates of P. C. H. S.

With the feeling of achievement and independence, the graduates enter securely upon the threshold of life.

CELEBRATING

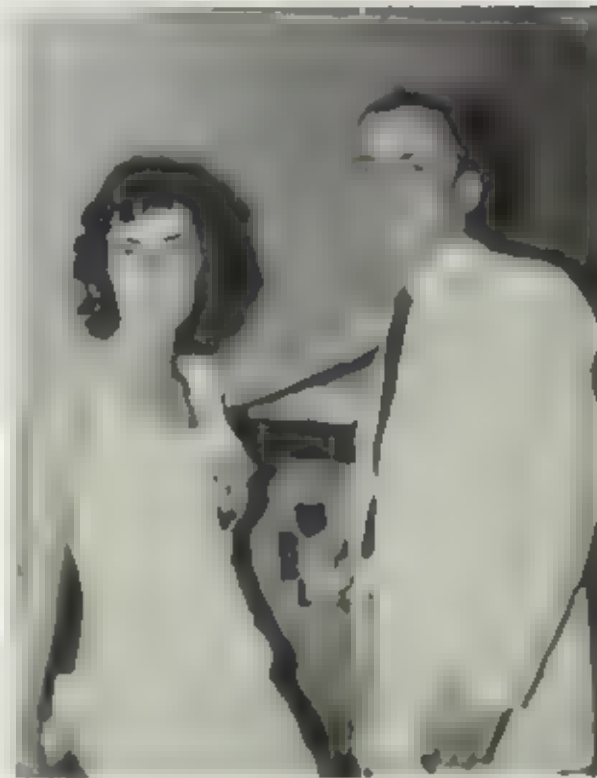

At a party after Class Night, gaiety and happiness excelled among all the Seniors.

Susie and Mark could have danced all night-- and they did!

Everybody likes to do the cha-cha-cha! But what about Linda?

Which is it, Sandy--prunes, persimmons or alfalfa?

Camera-shy, Jeannie?

Happy Jack----there's one in every crowd!

THE SPANISH CLASS

We regret that the pictures of the Spanish Class of '58-'59, instructed by Sister Mary Aquinas, P.C.J., were misplaced due to carelessness.

So instead of a picture or series of pictures we shall attempt a resume of our favorite and interesting class. It convenes every day from 12:50 to 1:35. Its hours are long but happy ones. As for our accomplishments, they are many but slightly off the subject.

As for our teacher, she is very understanding and we love her, however we have an unusual way of showing it. In class, part of the time she is like one of us--this we like.

Since we have been in Spanish class, we have not only learned about Spain and her language, customs and problems, but we have also learned more about our fellow students.

Of all our classes, this has been the favorite and those who will not be returning will miss this class, above all, its trials and tribulations.

To all who have in some way aided in making this yearbook the biggest and, I sincerely hope, the best in the brief history of Parkersburg Catholic High School, I wish to express my sincerest thanks.

First of all, to our parents--the backbone of our class--without whose help and constant guidance, the class of '59 would never have been able to continue the yearbook tradition, we thank you wholeheartedly.

To the entire staff--Assistant Editors Sandy Morehead and Linda Barsotti, who have put in hours beyond measure of untiring work-- to Business Manager, Regina Santer for her excellent management of our budget-- to Business Agents Mike Abdella, Ron Hill, Bernie McDonough and Karen Strain for their terrific salesmanship-- to Subscription Agents Carolyn Crawley and Mary Lee Ruppel, who introduced this year's Omnibus Omnia to many-- to Photographers Bruce Pierson and Barry Crowley whose co-operation aided in making this yearbook one of real memories-- to Art Editors Bill Deem and Martha Shedan whose ingenuity and artistic ability can plainly be seen throughout this book-- and also to the many typists and copyreaders whose thorough and precise work leaves few mistakes to be seen. Thanks to each and everyone of you, for without your assistance, the production of this Omnibus Omnia would have been impossible.

To the many business establishments and patrons, whose kind generosity has helped finance this book, we are deeply grateful.

To our faculty and administration for putting up with our stubbornness as well as some of the many trials and tribulations that faced us during the span of yearbook production, we owe thanks beyond measure.

And last but not, by far, the least, to our many subscribers, whose patronage has been the backbone that has kept the yearbook tradition going, we say "thank you". We hope that you will obtain as much enjoyment and satisfaction in owning the 1959 edition of our Omnibus Omnia, as we did in preparing it for you.

We have tried to the best of our ability to make this a yearbook that will be treasured by everyone throughout the years. For the Seniors, we know its contents hold many treasured memories of friends and activities that will always remain a part of us, of the wonderful times spent at Parkersburg Catholic High. We hope that it holds as many pleasant memories for the underclassmen, also.

All we can say, and that hardly seems enough, is "thanks--thanks to each and everyone of you for your wonderful co-operation and patronage."

Sincerely,

Catherine Marinaro
